

German Bula Escobar is the Former President of the Council of State of Colombia. Moreover, he serves as Justice of the Council of State of Colombia's Chamber of Advisory and Civil Service. He graduated from the law school at Universidad del Rosario. In addition, he has a master degree in economy at Universidad Nacional de Colombia and a master degree in political science and democratic leadership at Instituto de Altos Estudios Europeos de Madrid. He started doctoral studies in organizational cybernetics.

He has worked as legal advisor, attorney lawyer, arbitrator, associate judge and adjunct professor. He has also held directive positions in the public, social and private sector. He was Ambassador to Venezuela, Minister for Education, Vice Comptroller of Colombia, Comptroller (pro tempore), Labor and Social Security's Vice Minister and Minister (pro tempore). Mr. Bula has taught at Andes, Rosario, Javeriana, Jorge Tadeo Lozano and Sinu Universities.

He has professional experience in Administrative, Civil and Commercial Law, Conciliation and Arbitration; Cybernetics Management and Strategic Direction; education, political science, peace-related issues, sustainable human development, human rights, Indigenous, social-labor and agrarian affairs, diplomacy and international cooperation.