

Jose Perez Rios (PhD by Universidad Politécnica de Madrid) is Full Professor at UVa (University of Valladolid, Spain) where he has been Director of International Relations (2000-2006). He did participate in the creation of the Tordesillas Group and the HORIZONTE-2000 and IBERFORA projects. He has directed multiple national and international research projects. It has more than 80 publications in journals, book chapters and congresses, and five books (including "Design and Diagnosis for Sustainable Organizations. The Viable System Method", Springer 2012).

He received the Kybernetes Research Award (2005), the "Honorary HSSS Award as Distinguished Scientist" by Hellenic Society for Systemic Studies (HSSS) in 2007 and the appointment as "Honorary Editor" of the Journal of Applied Systemic Studies (2015). He is a member (since 2011) of the Board of Directors of World Organization of Systems and Cybernetics (WOSC), Fellow of the HSSS (since 2016) and Academician of the International Academy of Systems and Cybernetic Sciences (IASCYS) since 2017.